JANUARY IS ROTARY AWARENESS MONTH

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Esse quam videri

Pres. Raffy Chan

Welcome to the second semester of the current Rotary Year (RY); your president is excited to start 2008 with you! Our Club Assembly for today will center on our Mid-Year Report.

Your President and chairpersons for our five RCB Committees under the Club Leadership Plan (CLP) will be reporting on our accomplishments for the Second Quarter. Kindly note that the consolidated Accomplishment Matrices have already been published in our Cañao Number 25 (for this RY) as a Special First Semester Report Issue, dated 22 December 07. Your president (in his previous President's Corner) has jokingly written that that was supposed to be your Holiday assignment. We trust that you have at least cursorily taken a look at the report. If not, do find time later.

A Mid-Year Financial Report will also be made today. The breakdown on our financial status can be found on pages 8 and 9 of this Cañao issue. We trust that everyone will remain appreciative of our good financial standing.

Time has really slipped by fast. Like a thief in the night, six (we can say seven?) months have been “robbed” from us and have gone by almost like lightning.

As we move unto the second half of this Rotary Year (2007-08), allow your president to reconcile and take stock of the work that has been done by the members of this great Rotary club. I might be remiss if I venture to enumerate names and fail acknowledgement on any of the people who have contributed to our success for the first six months; so, pardon me if I prefer not to make any enumeration at this time. Suffice it to say, those who have been involved know who they are; and can take solace with the concept that there is more comfort in knowing, rather than saying what does not need to be verbalized, on the work that you have selflessly given.

To those who have obliged with less, due to one reason or another, thank you for giving what you can. Token as it may be, take equal comfort that you are a Rotarian and that by merely being a member, you have already given a share by way of your attendance and potential to be of help. But let this not stop you (in fact, we encourage you!) to be of better service through our RCB.

*****

Allow me to (again) share the admonition given to me by my esteemed adviser—PP Veeh Balajo: to continually possess the virtues of patience, humility, civility, open-mindedness, and diplomacy. Your president has sincerely tried to reconcile with all these. Sometimes it became difficult but I have genuinely tried; and herewith re-commit to these as we move into the second stretch of this RY.

*****

Your president respectfully serves notice to our esteemed club members and re-confirms on his forthcoming departure for the U.S.A. Airline tickets (from Northwest) have actually been secured for RAPP Josie and myself; our departure flight is on 01 Feb 08, with the return flight on 21 Feb 08. The main reason for our U.S. trip this year (in case you missed out) is for my beloved mother's Ninetieth Birthday Celebration (on 14 Feb 08) and a family reunion in Los Angeles, California. It will likewise be an opportunity to recharge my “presidential batteries.”

*****

Our Latin axiom for this week—“Esse quam videri.” Literally means: To be, rather than to seem. It is the state motto of North Carolina. To me, this is an admonition for everyone to be true—to the image that we project; to live out our lives in accordance with our true selves.

SUPPORT REQUEST

May we please remind all of our club members that we have two important raffles on-going and for which we request a special effort to be done.

1. PHF RAFFLE

The PHF raffle allows our Club to have one additional PHF every year.

It has helped many times to place our club as a donor-leader in our district among the Rotary Clubs to the Rotary Foundation.

It has helped our Club to obtain easily the funds from the Rotary Foundation for our different Matching Grants.

This year, we need to sell 55 tickets at P800.00 to our members to make possible one additional PHF, but a PHF plus some Sustaining Members to TRF would be better. At present only 30 of our 42 members have signified to buy one or more tickets.

2. PHILIPPINE ROTARY DISTRICTS RAFFLE

For this Raffle, very few among our members have participated—so far. We need to help sell tickets at P250.00 to our friends or customers.

We received booklets for an amount of P120,000.00. Only the amount of P20,000.00 has to be remitted to our District, the balance will accrue to us as money of the Club for our different activities.

It is important that all our members make an effort to sell these tickets as the Club really needs this money. Only 31 members have secured booklets.

We look forward to your support.

Past AG RY 2005-06 Eugene “Sony” Estavillo from RC Downtown Session and the Classmates of Baguio and Angeles IPP Walt Howard and Ann Nena participated as well.

The ambiance was very festive and the participants showed off their singing talents. A raffle was organized with interesting prizes and to everyone’s glee, all participants received a prize, including a special T-shirt made for the occasion.

IN RETROSPECT

The Meeting That Was 15 December 07

PP Alfred Laygo

Our Club's Christmas party was held for the third time at the rooftop of Abanao Square through the generosity of EIC Dhory Vicencio and the able coordination of PE Bert Talco. Registration of participants was led by our PP Linda Winter, Treasurer Marilyn Barredo and the Rotary anns led by Pres. Cely Ladilad. Of course the lechon was donated by President Nominee Mia Cawed who incidentally was absent because of previous commitment.

The meeting was called to order by our western-clad President Raffy Chan followed by the rendition of Doxology by our Club's Chorale group. The singing of the Pambansang Awit followed as led by the Program Coordinator, Past President-Elect (PPE a new name copyrighted by RCB) Chris Faelnar. A circle of the participants holding hands highlighted the singing of the Rotary Hymn. PE Bert Talco delivered his short yet warm welcome message.

Buffet lunch was then served with everyone patiently forming a line towards the food made up of sumptuous menu including a variety of drinks-red and white wines, whiskey, brandy, beers and orange juice as prepared by Sec Uwe Koeller. PP Chris Peralta came up with numerous entertaining presentations as lunch is being enjoyed by the participants.

Games for adults and children were organized by PP Linda Winter: For Adults: Going to Market with seven Rotarians in 2 groups going to market in a motherly attire. PP Ben Cid and Rtn. Joey Bugayong won as the best dressed marketers.

Children's Games includes Contests on Bringing the Kalamansi with a spoon in the mouth, Passing the bread, and the Trip to Jerusalem with Winsel Talco and Justinne Faye Laygo as survivors.

The distribution of gifts for the children by the European-imported Santa Claus with a French accent as assisted (or is it as led) by PP Mike Pearson. Pres Raffy Chan and RAPP Josie then distributed the Presidential gifts to the members. For your information, as proposed by PE Bert Talco we have unanimously decided to donate the money in purchasing our traditional Club gift to a Fund to be used for our Rotary Village Corps Christmas Party celebration in Luding, Tuba, Benguet.

The drawing of winners for the Raffle Prizes was led by Rtn. Chris. Numerous consolation prizes were won by the Rotarians, Rotary Anns and guests. Major prizes were won by RAPP Maya Peralta ( 2 prizes-Coffee maker and Grill), PP Veeh Balajo (Rice Cooker), PP Ben Cid (Vertical grill) and Treas. Marilyn Barredo ( 32" Plasma TV?).

Pres Raffy Chan made his usual adjournment with thanks to all those who attended and the members of the organizing committee. Our special thanks to PP Benny and RAPP Lily Sunga for providing free parking lot for most of our vehicles as we attended our Club's Christmas party. Kudos also goes to EIC Dhory for being a generous host and active participation in selling raffle tickets, PE Bert Talco who successfully passed his first test as incoming Club's President and to all active Committee Chairpersons for their wholehearted support and of course to all attendees who played a great role in making 2007 Christmas party an unforgettable one.

EVENTSYNOPSIS

Your RCB President explained (in Ilokano) to our Luding folk that our gifts to them for Christmas were important because they are gifts from the heart. Not so much for their monetary value but for our Holiday Message to them that they should strive hard to make themselves more productive through self-help and the support which we constantly extend to them.

RCB Santa Claus (aka IPP Gerard Audineau) was on-hand to give out our “holiday pack” to each of the thirty-one families of Luding.

From the smiles we saw—coming from the young ones and the young once, our gifts were much appreciated.
