PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Starting the Rotary Year Right

Pres. Alberto "Bert" Talco

I know everyone in the Club aims at starting the year right for us to be able to pursue and complete the goals and objectives of Rotary Year 2008-2009. Thus the Club Assembly gave us the opportunity to gauge and evaluate the Club's performance for the first semester.

True indeed, the records show positive performance in all the aspects of service concerned. This was made possible only through the dedication of our Board, committee heads and with the cooperation and support of the membership. I do acknowledge the leadership of our Past Presidents who continuously guide and direct the Club as it ventures on.

The financial report will be presented to the membership anew after consolidation of all the needed documents and a final audit by Rtn. Rolly. The joint forces of Treas. Uwe and Rtn. Rolly will definitely reflect the true picture of the Club's financial standing as of this period. I am aware that this issue is a matter that is of prime interest to everyone. To Treas. Uwe and Rtn. Rolly, the Club is surely appreciative of your commitment to straighten out the records for us. The transparency of all reports should always be our utmost concern so that problems will be addressed by the membership as soon as possible.

Preparations for the Community Service and Outreach Program of Cluster 1-C as our participation in the City's Centennial Year, scheduled for 16 - 18 January 09 is going well. Last Tuesday, 6 January 09, the hero presidents of Cluster 1-C, under the able leadership of AG Eric Rodriguez, met at the Wolfson room of Baguio Country Club to further finalize the action plans for the major Cluster project. Last 07 January 09, we conducted an ocular inspection at the Baguio Convention Center, along with Pres. Edwin Mora, Metro Baguio Rotary Club, for the physical arrangement of said venue.

Last Wednesday, 08 January 09, the Board had a special meeting to finalize the financial report. Both Treas. Uwe and Rtn. Rolly were present and several financial issues were clarified. Some documents would till submitted by other committees for the proper appraisal of the records and monies on hand. Also taken up were updates of membership dues, magazine subscriptions, canao sponsorship, effective collection, committee funds and fund raising projects.

With celebrations still so much in the air, we are lucky to have a knowledgeable person speak about what is in store for our region. This Saturday, 10 January 09, our Guest of Honor and Speaker is the very amiable Director Pura S. Molintas, who will talk on the Cordilleras and its festivals.

Thoughts for the week:

"Great is the man who can accept criticism.
Greater yet is he who welcomes it but greatest of all is he who knows how to administer it in a spirit of love and sensitivity, without causing pain and chagrin..

PURIFICACION S. SUANDING-MOLINTAS

Regional Director
DEPARTMENT OF TOURISM – CAR

Today's Guest of Honor and Speaker is a true-blooded Benguet Cordilleran sired by the late Gov. Bantas W. Suanding and by a descendant of one of Baguio City's and Tuba's original families named Elizabeth Suello. She was born and raised in the city of Baguio and attended the Belgian-run Saint Louis Mission Center where she was an honor student. As a student leader, she became the first Girl Scout City Mayor of Baguio City in 1976, was the Citizens Army Training (CAT0 Units Corp Commander of Saint Louis Girls' High School in 1976-77 and was awarded the GERARDO ROXAS LEADERSHIP AWARD.

While in college, she likewise wrote as an editorial staff of the Saint Louis University Sword and Shield, coveted several awards for outstanding leadership, was a consistent academic scholar and eventually graduated as "CUMLAUDE" with the degree of Bachelor of Arts major in Political Science. She further pursued her studies in law and graduated in the Dean's List and later on spent her time in family-owned realty business. In the early 1990s, she was a regular participant under the USAID- Agribusiness System Assistance Program which brought her to cut flower farms, orchards and agribusiness facilities like cold storage and laboratories in the Philippines and other Asian countries like Hong Kong, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia.

She is married to Atty. Raul Molintas, former Governor of Benguet who completed his 9-year old term in 2004; blessed with a 20-year old daughter, Lady Charmaine and a 16-yr old son, Baron Ralf. As former First Lady of the Province of Benguet, she was deeply involved in women's livelihood projects which gave way to the establishment of the Benguet Livelihood and Productivity Training Center in Wangal, La Trinidad, Benguet and eventual construction of a Benguet Museum beside the Provincial Capitol. She has also served as Adviser to the Benguet Farmer – Trainees to Japan and the Benguet Entrepreneurs Association, among others.

While she was busy with public concerns, she managed to chart a career path of her own. In May 1998, she took the prestigious third level Career Service Commission Eligibility (CSEE) Examination conducted by the Civil Service Commission with about 250 other examinees from the Cordillera region where she was one among the only 5 examinees who passed. And on 16 June 1999, she assumed the position of Regional Director of the Department Tourism-CAR which she holds to this date. She is also a Career Executive Service under the CESO Board.

As Tourism Regional Director for the Cordillera Administrative Region, she has focused on the development of new tourism products in the region in cooperation with various private sector stakeholders such as tourism councils and tourism organizations and the local government units. Thus, many festivals have emerged such as the Baguio Tossed Salad Festival both of which recently celebrated its 6th year and the Benguet King Carrot Cake Festival both of which aspired to be candidates to the Guinness Book of World Records and which became inspirations for other destinations to vie for Guinness Book of World Record titles like the biggest Strawberry Cake of La Trinidad, Benguet, also a DOT-funded project. In 2005, the Department of Tourism – CAR spearheaded the new regional festival called "WOW PHILIPPINES, CORDILLERAS' BEST", the Young Ambassadors for Tourism Camp (YATC) and the new concept of the BENGUET ADIVAY which the Benguet Provincial Government began to sustain for 2006 and hopefully in all succeeding years. The succeeding year of 2006, saw the birth of the DOT-supported 1st UNOY FESTIVAL of Tinglayan, Kalinga. Today, Cordillera stands proud for its numerous festivals as engines of rural development and machineries geared towards the dispersal of economic growth from urban centers.

After each year of toiling in the government service, she has become the recipient of several distinguished awards and recognitions from the Philippine Military Academy, Philippine National Police, and several others. Just recently, she was adjudged as one of the "10 Gems of Baguio" by Lady's Choice- Philippines and has been nominated in the search for national government awards.

Despite all the travel – laden hardships and toiling in the Department of Tourism, God has blessed the director with many rewards. For 2006, she was sent to Seoul, Korea last August to participate in the 2-week WEDDING EXPOSITION then to Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia last 10-13 Oct 2006 as observer in the Brunei-Indonesia- Malaysia-Philippines East Asia Growth Area In-Country Level Workshop. And recently to the 2006 ASEAN Seminar for Tourism Officials in Beijing, China from 31 October - 15 November 06. All of which are within just four months.

In view of the increasing demand in the tourism industry, she has also been recruited as faculty member of Saint Louis University at the Hotel and Tourism Management Department.

The Meeting That Was 03 January 09

Rtn. Herb Hayes

The meeting of 03 January 09 began promptly at 12:30 PM by our President Bert Talco. Immediately, all stood together for the Invocation led by Rtn. David Rees which was immediately followed by the singing of Pambansang Awit and the Rotary Hymn.

The Entertainment was conducted by Rtn. Herb Meadows who introduced our first entertainer of this New Year PP Lito Pangilinan who sang two songs "The Prayer and He". He did a fine job of singing them and truly entertaining the crowd-as only Lito can do!

Then Rtn. Joe Ursua , the Program Coordinator called PN Ben Ladilad to introduce the old Rotarians, friends, those who are at the head table and the first guest of the year, Major Engel Soriano.

After that, Rtn. Joe Ursua called on Rtn. Angie Visperas for the raffle draw to be assisted by Rtn. Herb Meadows. Winners were Rtn. David Rees, IPP Raffy Chan, PP Diony Claridad, Treas. Uwe Koeller , guest Major Engel Soriano winning twice, PP Veeh Balajo, Rtn. Angie Visperas and finally, PP Mike Pearson.

Next, we had a Christmas message instead of the Finest Moments- A surprise by PP Roger Naz. He recognized and thanked mostly every club member for their personal input for the benefit of the club although the "title" of the message ("Christmas") message was not so appropriate, nevertheless, it was a very complimentary talk.

Next was Members' Time. EIC Dhory apologized for the printing of the Cañao this week as the machine bogged down; PE Mia Cawed also expressed some concerns; special members were recognized by PP Lito Pangilinan for all the help during the Christmas season affairs and thanked those who contributed liquors, wine and drinks for the Christmas party.

Next is the President's Time. This is the time of our very own Pres. Bert at the rostrum. He awarded the Paul Harris Certificate to PN Ben Ladilad. He also recognized our birthday celebrants and called them in front to receive their birthday cards and for the members to greet them and sing a birthday song for them. There is also an announcement on the cluster project- medical missions.

Then came the reports of the officers as the highlight of the Club Assembly: three new members were inducted, while three members also left the club. Our aim is to be a golden Club, for which we need to recruit seven members.

Our Club attendance percentage was 92% which was very good! Encouragement was extended to all to become a Paul Harris Fellow and be prompt on payment of dues and financial obligations. Being a Rotarian is more expensive so we need solutions which may be announced perhaps next time.

Others discussed by Pres. Bert were Vocational Service Youth Service, Rotaract and Interact Clubs, Service Projects, Partners in Service Rotary Projects. Rotary Foundation, Scholarship Program.

PE Mia offered a more comprehensive details of the executive summary given by Pres. Bert. She discussed about the club speakers, fellowship, golf tournament, club elections, and media coverage for Christmas party.

Pres. Bert offered an open forum. First question is about the time given to the Guest of Honor of Speaker, and another question mentioned by PP Doming is the issue regarding the recruitment of members. PE Mia suggested that Rtn. Libby to chair the membership Committee since she was the one who recruited PE Mia and Pres. Bert.

Treas. Uwe Koeller gave his report, The Financial Report, and then welcomed another forum for questions.

IPP Raffy, PP Mike and PP Doming all gave tough questions, which necessitated Pres. Bert to decide to revise the financial reports for a later date. We ended the meeting by singing Pilipinas Kong Mahal and Pres. Bert adjourned the meeting thereafter.

Rtn. Joe: I am your humble program coordinator today, well, at least I'll try not talk a lot.

PP Mike: I like Club Assemblies, people don't know what I'm up to.

PN Ben: Pres. Bert, aside from our moustache, we now have another common denominator, PHF.

Rtn. Angie: Is that really me? I should always smile that way, makes me look younger.

PP Angeling: Yes, It's my Birthday, so you better treat me today.

PP Mia: Yes, all eyes and ears please. I came very prepared today.

Treas. Uwe: Oh boy! What a way to start my year... PP Doming beside me & PP Mike behind.

Great Mind Has a Purpose

Kesuke Miyagi (also known as Mr. Miyagi) is a fictional martial arts master and the mentor of Daniel LaRusso and later Julie Pierce in the Karate Kid films. The character was played by Noriyuki "Pat" Morita, who earned an Academy Award nomination for his performance in the first film.

Mr. Miyagi has a deep philosophical knowledge of life and has extraordinary martial arts skills such as attempting to catch a fly with chopsticks, and knowledge of acupressure. As the story moves on, Miyagi explains to Daniel about life, about how, in his opinion, everything has a reason to be the way it is, and about the meaning of things in life.

To better present the wisdom of Mr. Miyagi, here are some dialogues from the trilogy:

FROM KARATE KID:

MIYAGI: Oh, Daniel-san, you too much by self, not good.

DANIEL: I'm not by myself, I'm with you.

MIYAGI: To make honey, young bee need young flower... not old prune.

MIYAGI: Smell bad, heal good.

DANIEL: I always thought it came from Buddhist temples and stuff like that.

MIYAGI: You too much TV.

MIYAGI: No such thing bad student. Only bad teacher. Teacher say, student do.

DANIEL: Miyagi, Miyagi. Hey, what kind of belt do you have?

MIYAGI: Canvas, you like? J.C. Penney, $3.98.

MIYAGI: In Okinawa, belt mean no need rope hold up pants.

MIYAGI: BONZAI!!!

FROM KARATE KID 2:

DANIEL: Can you break a log like that?

MIYAGI: Don't know, never been attacked by tree.

MIYAGI: Rule number one - Karate for defense only. Rule number two - first learn rule number one.

FROM KARATE KID 3:

DANIEL: This isn't exactly fighting, you know.

MIYAGI: Not exactly ping-pong either.

Speak to Rtn. Ping this way and with all certainty you will get the smartest and the most amazing responses as the above.

Our ever-loved Rotarian Ping Paraan has always shown and shared his wisdom to us. He is our "Mr. Miyagi" as he never ceases to teach us not only the Rotary arts but also the ways of life. His speech about the Liberation of Baguio is one of the most unforgettable presentations rendered in our club. If only RCB is part of Hollywood, he also would have earned an Academy Award for such speech performance.

The youngsters of Rotary Club of Baguio are very fortunate to have Rtn. Ping Paraan as a mentor. With him in our midst, Rotary exceeds service and fellowship. It also offers inspiration and training for a better life.

RI'S YOUTUBE CHANNEL MAKES ADDING VIDEO TO YOUR WEB SITE EASY

When Rotarian Jeffrey Ott wanted to share his club's mushroom festival with a wider audience, the professional photographer teamed up with another club member to compose a slideshow and upload it to YouTube, complete with original music.

"It provides a quick and easy format for clubs without requiring a lot of expertise or equipment," says Ott, a member of the Rotary Club of Hawks Prairie-Lacey, Washington, USA, of the video-sharing site. "We are trying to use it more. People tend to go to YouTube first."

Video is an indispensable tool as Rotary seeks to increase its membership among younger generations. Fortunately, it has never been easier to add Rotary-related video to your club's Web site.

Rotary International launched its own YouTube channel a year ago with two goals in mind: offering Rotary video content to viewers who may not be familiar with the organization, and providing free video content to Rotary club webmasters.

The YouTube channel supplements video on Rotary's Web site by providing Rotarians the means of embedding video onto their own sites. Rotarians, Rotaractors, and Interactors are encouraged to select from a growing collection of pieces from RVM: The Rotarian Video Magazine and from Humanity in Motion public service announcements. Plans include highlighting user-generated video.

The channel has also taken Rotary's message to new audiences by allowing users to post the videos on non-Rotary sites. The Peace and Collaborative Development Network site features an embedded video of the Peace and Conflict Studies program at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand.

RI's YouTube Channel has more than 450 subscribers and has received over 30,000 views. Comments have been overwhelmingly positive.

"We have had a positive feedback from our club members to the inclusion of the videos on our club Web site," says Andrew Shaw, of the Rotary Club of Northampton West, England. "By having RI videos readily and easily available on our club Web site, club members find it keeps them up to date and more aware about RI activities throughout the world and enables them to talk with more confidence about how RI supports communities and individuals both nationally and internationally"

"This is a great idea," notes Howard Pell, a member of the Rotary Club of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, who has been making videos of his club's activities for a couple of years and posting them to YouTube.

EMBEDDING VIDEOS FROM RI'S YOUTUBE CHANNEL

Years ago, adding video to a Web site was a major challenge. In addition to the cost of equipment to capture and edit your own video, you had to choose between formats and hope that visitors to your site had the proper software installed to view it. Bandwidth limitations were also an issue.

But with the advent of YouTube and the increase in broadband connections, embedding video on a Web site has never been easier. Follow these simple steps to add a video from Rotary International's YouTube channel to your Rotary club's Web site or Rotary-related blog:

1. After you've found a video you would like, look for this box on the upper right: corner of the YouTube page

2. Click your mouse within the Embed field box, which will highlight everything in the box. Right-click within the field and select Copy from your browser's drop-down box. This will copy the embed code, which will look something like this:

<obect width="480" height="295">
<param name="movie"
value="http://www.youtube.com/v/YAGgQGh7gTgTg&hl=en&fs=1">
</param><param name="allowFullScreen" value="true">
</param><param name="allowscriptaccess" value="always"> </param><embed src="http://www.youtube.com/v/YAGgQGh7gTgTg&hl=en&fs=1" type="application/x-shockwave-flash" allowscriptaccess="always" allowfullscreen="true" width="480" height="295">
</embed></object>

3. Open the source code of your Web page, and use a Web page editing tool to paste the embed code into your page. Save the page and upload it to your server using a FTP client.

Many free blogging services such as Google's Blogger make it even easier to embed video into a blog. It's as simple as selecting the YouTube video you want, composing a new message on your blog, selecting the edit html tab, and pasting the embed code you copied from YouTube onto the page. Preview your blog and post.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST.

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

SECOND.

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD.

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH.

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR-WAY TEST OF ROTARY

Of all the things we think, say or do:

- 1 Is it the TRUTH?
- 2 Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3 Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4 Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
