Message from

Atom Mendalla

President | Rotary Club of Baguio

Greetings my dear RCB family!

This December we are celebrating “Disease Prevention and Treatment” month.

Never before has it been more apparent that HEALTH is WEALTH. In fact, during these times, Health is literally LIFE itself.

As we prepare for our very first face to face meeting since the Pandemic – I am both excited (because we have not seen each other in 9 months) and apprehensive (because we are risking our safety at time when there is still no cure for the COVID 19 virus).

Therefore, let us please continue watching out for each other and reminding everyone to consistently observe health and safety protocols.

This Christmas, my most fervent wish is for an end to this Pandemic. And for an effective vaccine that can be made readily available and affordable to every nation.

Having said that – I think this worldwide crisis has brought on some good things as well.

It's given us the right perspective on what REALLY matters – Life, Health, Family and Friends, Unity and Compassion, Patience and Understanding.

Despite our intelligence, abilities, skills and technological advancements – we don't really have control of our ultimate fate. All we have going for us is our Faith and Trust in the Almighty.

“In the end, we only regret the chances we didn't take”

“You only live once, but if you do it right, once is enough” – Joe Lewis

“The saddest summary of a life contains three descriptions: could have, might have and should have” – Louis E. Boone

Have a great weekend ahead. Mabuhay ang Rotary Club of Baguio!

dren's clothes, to Cagayan Province because the Cluster is organizing a trip in several tranches. The club will inform AG Larry Apostol if the collected items are available for dispatch.

- IPP Baby Kaur volunteered to be one of the drop-off points of the donations, if any. Volunteer/s will be identified as designated drop-off points.
6. Presentation of Action Groups:
- PP Raffy Chan, a member of Supporting the Environment Action Group, asks the indulgence of the President and the RCB members for not being able to report.
  - Unfortunately, the other two Action Groups (Water & Sanitation and Peace & Conflict/Resolution) were also not available to present their plans as scheduled.
7. Action Groups:
- Pres. Atom asked the members for their feedback and reactions with regards to the Action Groups. Here are some comments from those who attended the meeting:
    - The Action Group system is very good; it will allow all members to work.
    - The Action Group as a concept is a good concept because, in the absence of any face-to-face meeting, it is something that should be workable.
    - The current Action Groups in itself are okay. But there are reservations that the other standing committees (TRF, Scholarship, Youth, etc.) are left unattended/left out.
    - The idea of involving everybody is okay but there are concerns that some members are not interested in their assigned group; many are not cooperative; and some are also not been made aware of their responsibility in the action group.

- The Action Group, supposedly will be more practical and more workable if done in the last quarter of each Rotary Year. It's like a workshop style so that the different action groups will already prepare their plans to be implemented in the coming Rotary Year, not during the first part. During the first quarter supposedly, we have already made our plans for the year, and implement projects already during the current Rotary Year. It is very important to have these Action Groups, but not in the first quarter.
  - The Actions groups is good but can the Action Group still do their plans and project given the budget at hand? We are already on almost half of Rotary Year. Do we still approve their budget and projects? When will they start?
- The following comments/suggestions were also brought out:
    - Can we continue the weekly speakers? I really enjoyed listening, and at the same time, I am learning. Or can we try the face-to-face meeting just once because, based on my observation, we must have an inspiration or interest in attending meetings?
    - I manifest my support to face-to-face meetings soon but still need approval from everybody. I think we conduct a raising of hands if we want to have a face-to-face meeting. We need it now.
    - There are members that have not attended a single meeting. I think we should do something.
8. This week's program coordinator, IPP Baby Kaur.
- (Note: These are the highlights of the meeting. Complete details of the minutes of the meeting are available on file and shall be furnished through email upon your request.)*

Maternal health projects give Rotary clubs in Uganda a sense of purpose during COVID-19 restrictions

by Claire Zulkey

In March, the Ugandan government moved rapidly to confront the COVID-19 pandemic, issuing a strict lockdown and closing schools before the country had experienced more than a handful of reported cases.

The measures have been credited with saving lives and limiting the spread of the virus in the country, which had recorded only 1,200 cases and five deaths in August as the continent of Africa approached a million.

Still, those measures didn't come without a cost, including lost jobs and hardships on pregnant women unable to reach a hospital due to the travel restrictions. Reuters reported that one woman in Kampala struggled for 90 minutes to reach a hospital a mile and a half (about 2.4 km) away. Both she and the baby died. In addition, the Women's Probono Initiative, an advocacy group, reported cases of six other women and two babies dying during the lockdown.

When the Rotary Club of Rubaga, Kampala, heard of the reports, they knew they had to act to provide a safe transport option. The club donated an ambulance to provide medical transport to residents of Kikajjo, about a 40-minute drive southwest of Kampala. Betty Mwesigwa, the club's immediate past president, says Kikajjo has densely populated, lower-income areas.

"The problem during the COVID-19 epidemic is that mothers were failing to make it to maternal centers during the lockdown," she says. "When we heard of two cases of mothers who had delivered beside the road, we decided to donate an ambulance to them."

One Rotarian who works in the tour and travel industry had a vehicle that could easily be retrofitted into an ambulance. The club raised the money for the updates and a driver, as well as masks for the passengers.

The ambulance provided more than 75 rides to women in need of care during the lockdown. In September, most of the travel restrictions were lifted, but Ugandans were continuing to be encouraged to limit travel, as cases approached 10,000 and 96 deaths.

Mwesigwa said the club withdrew the ambulance once transportation services were restored. But the club has been continuing to help in other ways. The club has hosted family health events in the past that provided free dental, optical, and reproductive health care. It is also working on plans to build a maternity ward at a hospital in Semuto, about an hour and a half northwest of Kampala, in an area that was damaged by war and never fully recovered.

"This is a hospital that is overwhelmed by mothers who come to give birth, but the facilities are very poor," Mwesigwa says.

In addition to its work helping mothers and children, the Rubaga club has donated soap, hand sanitizer, and small water tanks for hand washing to local hospitals. Water is scarce at Ugandan hospitals, and there is little government aid to pay for additional supplies, so many Rotary clubs have donated water tanks, masks, gloves, sanitizers, soap, and other items.

The Rubaga club also donated goods and money for those without food.

During the lockdown, Mwesigwa explained, many people didn't have enough to eat, even if they had work. "One teacher was feeding her children on peelings."

Rubaga is one of many Rotary clubs in Uganda that are working to support mothers and children. These efforts have become more important as the pandemic has increased maternal and neonatal mortality rates in Kenya, Tanzania, and Uganda that were already high.

The maternal health projects have given the club a sense of purpose.

"We are happy to have saved the lives of many Ugandans," Mwesigwa says.

Presidential Message - December 2020

Message from

Holger Knaack

President | Rotary International

As I look back on 2020, I reflect on how our lives have changed. The global COVID-19 pandemic brought pain and loss to many of us. And for almost all of us, our daily lives, family time, and work also changed this year. But we've made it to the end of this difficult year, not on our own but by reaching out to one another, as we always do in Rotary. With each passing year, I become prouder of our organization.

I will choose to remember 2020 as a year of great change and strength for us; Rotary didn't stop, despite the pandemic. We removed obstacles, found new ways to connect, and embraced new approaches to service, such as online projects and virtual fundraising. I have invited two Rotarians to share their stories about how Rotary grew stronger this year.

When the pandemic shut everything down, our emerging e-club was already providing digital service, including internationally. Fourteen U.S. women and I, members of multiple Rotary clubs, were using WhatsApp to mentor women entrepreneurs in rural Costa Rica, helping them to grow their ecotourism business, RETUS Tours [the subject of the magazine's May cover story, "Nature & Nurture"]. The project has grown, with 30 Rotarians now providing consulting and help with the RETUS website and social media. Most importantly, we continue building relationships and empowering these women to transform their own lives, and we are doing it online. I've even helped one of the women, Rosa, prepare a presentation in English for an online international conference. While our engagement with the Costa Rican women still requires some hands-on activity, the most transformative impacts haven't had to be in person.

— Liza Larson, Rotary E-Club Engage and Rotary Club of Plano East, Texas

I was president of my club when COVID-19 hit, and many members didn't yet have Zoom. Only 10 of our 53 members participated in the first Zoom meeting during the pandemic. I thought that reaching out and getting guest speakers from around the world to engage our members would help. Many Rotary leaders, a Rotary Peace Fellow, and even RI President Holger Knaack visited virtually and spoke to our club. Meeting attendance improved, while we reduced running costs by cutting out meals. Some members who worked outside our city and had missed our meetings even rejoined us. Registering our online meetings on My Rotary enhanced contacts with clubs across the world, and the joint meeting addressed by Holger attracted more than 300 visitors. We also raised more funds as members and visitors contributed to our projects. To continue being flexible for all, we are now offering hybrid meetings. For me, 2020 has been the best year in Rotary as I've made many new friends.

— Blessing Michael, Rotary Club of Port Harcourt North, Nigeria

These stories should give us all reasons to be optimistic about Rotary in the year ahead. We are not just surviving; we are gaining strength. We are discovering how resilient our organization truly is. We are seeing for ourselves how Rotary Opens Opportunities — even during pandemics — to grow, connect, and engage our members and the communities we serve.

From our home in Ratzeburg to yours, Susanne and I would like to bid you and your family the warmest of season's greetings. We can't wait to see the good things that 2021 will bring.

Why I Raise for Rotary: Doing Good with the World Fund

<https://blog.rotary.org/2020/11/27/why-i-raise-for-rotary-doing-good-with-the-world-fund/>

By Brenda Cressey, Trustee and Rotary Member of South Portland-Cape Elizabeth, Maine, USA

Several years ago, my husband and I had the opportunity to take part in a multi-project mission with more than 100 Rotarians, spouses, Rotaractors and even a few new Rotarians from Rotary District 5280. We flew to Panama to visit project sites, perform cataract surgeries, and deliver wheelchairs.

There were several “Rotary moments” on that trip, but the truly unforgettable moment for me was when a grandfather, having no legs, was presented with the gift of mobility in the form of a bright red wheelchair.

The gift of a wheelchair gives a man without legs newfound freedom of movement.

Seeing his grandson in tears reminded me that we not only changed that grandfather’s life, but the life of that young boy who had been lovingly carrying his grandfather everywhere since he became big enough to do so. Moments like that one are why I never miss an opportunity to promote the World Fund and encourage others to support it with their generous giving.

As an alum of The Rotary Foundation, I have also visited project sites in Mexico several times, working with local Rotarians to develop a long-term partnership that continues to this day.

Another time while on vacation, I was asked by a Rotary club to visit a local family in dire need. Driving down a dusty road with a member of the club, we arrived at a home not much larger than 10 feet by 10 feet made of concrete blocks, cardboard, and tin. A dirt floor and a few boards made up a single bed with rags for blankets in the sparse home. A mother and father were raising 10 children there.

The father, whose legs had been crushed at a construction site, sat in a makeshift wheelchair. A member of the club had found the woman sobbing on the sidewalk the previous evening and learned that she only had a single tortilla left. The club responded, enabled by the World Fund and the gifts of generous donors.

I have had the privilege of supporting the World Fund as a regional Rotary Foundation coordinator, Endowment Major Gift Advisor, Trustee, Vice-Chair, and Chair of the Rotary Foundation. It is with this experience that I can tell you that now, more than ever, we need your help.

The Rotary Foundation awarded a record amount of funds last year including 490 district grants and 1,359 global grants. I am so proud of all the good we were able to do to help communities all around the world. But the demand continues to grow, putting an incredible financial strain on the World Fund.

I decided to launch a Raise for Rotary fundraiser to build support and awareness. We need a strong World Fund to enable the ongoing work of Rotary members around the world.

Your gift, no matter how big or small, will make a difference. Visit my Raise for Rotary fundraising page and consider launching one of your own.

Rotary Club of Baguio

Our Official Club Bulletin has been called The Cañao. “Cañao” (pronounced as kan-yau) is actually the local term for the dance during native feasts or celebrations in the highlands of the Cordilleras- in Northern Luzon of the Philippines.

This is depicted in our Cañao emblem which shows a number of human figures in deep concentration—absorbed in ritual dance.

The attention, focus, commitment and unity of the club’s members is represented by the dancing figures—in celebration or expectation of a bountiful harvest; much as we actually do—in anticipation of the joy derived from public service to the community—always coupled with fellowship. Hence, the sub-title of “A Celebration of Service.”

The Rotary Club of Baguio (RCB) was chartered on 21 February 1938. The 4,587th member of Rotary International and the oldest club organized North of Manila; the 6th chartered Rotary Club in the entire Philippines.

Our over-simplified club logo (red) is a composite of the letters r, c & B; this is symbolic of the club’s straightforwardness. Over-all cardiode-heart shape connotes that our members serve from the heart. The four basic elements (four quadrants—now 3D bevelled) are symbolic of Rotary’s Four-Way Test and the members’ commitment to it. Our charter year of 1938 is used as the mid-focal point of the logo, to emphasize our early beginnings and continuing dedication to
